A. Questions to help determine wh	ether an employee has a disability.
-----------------------------------	-------------------------------------

For reasonable accommodation under the ADA, an employee has a disability if he or she has an impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities or a record of such an impairment. The following questions may help determine whether an employee has a disability:

Does the employee/patient have a physical or mental impairment?	Yes 🗆	No 🗆
Does the employee/patient have a physical or mental impairment?	Yes 🗆	No 🗆

If yes, what is the impairment or the nature of the impairment?

Answer the following question based on what limitations the employee has when his or her condition is in an active state and what limitations the employee would have if no mitigating measures were used. Mitigating measures include things such as medication, medical supplies, equipment, hearing aids, mobility devices, the use of assistive technology, reasonable accommodations or auxiliary aids or services, prosthetics, learned behavioral or adaptive neurological modifications, psychotherapy, behavioral therapy, and physical therapy. Mitigating measures do not include ordinary eyeglasses or contact lenses.

Does the impairment substantially limit a major life activity as compared to most people in the general population?	Yes 🗆	No 🗆

B. Questions to help determine whether an accommodation is needed.
An employee with a disability is entitled to an accommodation only when the accommodation is needed because of the disability. The following questions may help determine whether the requested accommodation is needed because of the disability:
What limitation(s) is interfering with the employee/patient's job performance or accessing a benefit of employment?
How does the employee's limitation(s) interfere with his/her ability to perform the job function(s) or access a benefit of employment?
C. Questions to help determine effective accommodation options.
If an employee has a disability and needs an accommodation because of the disability, the employer must provide a reasonable accommodation, unless the accommodation poses an undue hardship. The following questions may help determine effective accommodations:
Do you have any suggestions regarding possible accommodations to assist with the employee's performance of job functions?

If so, what are they?_

How would your suggestions improve the employee's ability to perform the fu	functions of the job	?
